Words and Expressions used and not defined in this Policy but defined in the Act or applicable laws shall have the same meaning respectively assigned to them in those Acts/applicable laws.

D. PREAMBLE:

Dividend is the payment made by a Company to its shareholders, in the form of distribution of its profits. The profits earned by the Company can either be retained in business or utilized for acquisitions, expansion or diversification, or it can be distributed to the shareholders. The Company may choose to retain a part of its profits and distribute the balance among its shareholders as a Dividend. This Policy aims to reconcile between all these needs.

The Policy establishes the principles to ascertain amounts that can be distributed to shareholders as Dividend by the Company as well as enable the Company strike balance between pay-out and retained earnings, in order to address future needs of the Company. It lays down various parameters which shall be considered by the Board of the Company before recommendation/declaration of Dividend to its shareholders.

E. CATEGORY OF DIVIDENDS

The provisions of the Act provide for two forms of Dividend i.e., Interim & Final. The Board shall have the power to recommend final dividend to the shareholders for their approval in the general meeting of the Company. The Board shall have the absolute power to declare interim dividends during the financial year, as and when they consider it fit.

i. Final Dividend
